Another day of sun lyrics

La La Land Cast Lyrics "Another Day Of Sun" (from "La La Land" soundtrack) [First Girl:] Ba-ba-da-ba da-ba-da-ba Ba-ba-ba ba-da-ba-da-ba Ba-ba-ba ba [First Girl:] I think about that day I left him at a Greyhound station West of Santa Fé We were seventeen, But he was sweet and it was true Still I did what I had to do 'Cause I just knew Summer: Sunday nights We'd sink into our seats Right as they dimmed out all the lights A Technicolor world made out of music and machine It called me to be on that screen And live inside each scene [First Girl & First Man:] Without a nickel to my name Hopped a bus, here I came Could be brave or just insane [First Girl, First Man & Second Man:] We'll have to see [First Girl:] 'Cause maybe in that sleepy town He'll sit one day, the lights are down He'll see my face and think of how he... [First Girl, First Man, Second Man & Dancers:] ...used to know me [All:] Climb these hills I'm reaching for the heights And chasing all the lights that shine (the lights that shine) And when they let you down (and it's another day of...) You'll get up off the ground (and it's another day of...) 'Cause morning rolls around And it's another day of sun [Young Man:] I hear 'em every day The rhythms in the canyons That'll never fade away The ballads in the barrooms Left by those who came before They say, "You gotta want it more." So I bang on every door [Second Girl:] And even when the answer's "No" Or when my money's running low The dusty mic and neon glow Are all I need [Young Man:] And someday as I sing my song A small-town kid'll come along [Second Girl & Young Man:] That'll be the thing to push him on and go go [All:] Climb these hills I'm reaching for the heights And chasing all the lights that shine (the lights that shine) And when they let you down (and it's another day of...) You'll get up off the ground (and it's another day of...) 'Cause morning rolls around And it's another day of sun [Instrumental break] [First Girl:] When they let you down The morning rolls around [All:] It's another day of sun It's another day of sun It's another day of sun It's another day of sun Just another day of sun It's another day of sun Another day has just begun It's another day of sun [Intro] It's another day of sun Another day has just begun It's another day of sun Another day has just begun It's another day of sun It's another day of sun It's another day of sun Thanks to Zara, Este, Emily for correcting these lyrics. Writer(s): Benj Pasek, Justin Noble Paul, Justin Hurwitz Justin Hurwitz explained, "...our working title for that song, for a very long time, was just 'Traffic'. Even late in the process I remember... After Pasek and Paul wrote the words 'Another Day of Sun' and that title existed, all of the crew and department heads were still sometimes calling it 'Traffic'." Justin Paul said about the meaning of 'Another Day Of Sun', "L.A. may also be a constant struggle, but it's also constant blue skies. You pursue that dream, and you go to bed and get up the next day, and it's a gorgeous day. It encourages you in one breath, and in another breath doesn't acknowledge that you just failed miserably. You wake up and it doesn't match your mood. It's a bright and shiny day. And you're like, 'Wait a second!' " "Another Day of Sun" is the first song in the film, composed by Justin Hurwitz and written by Benj Pasek and Justin Paul, sung by the entire La La Land cast. The song is a choreographed party in broad daylight on the usually irritating, jammed LA highway - an extremely, amazing theatrical depiction of magic in the mundane. The cast starts in their cars, in gridlocked L.A. traffic - and break into a choreographed troupe format dance. The song's featured singers tell personal "origin stories" that loosely foreshadow the plot of the movie, setting up the main characters' motivations as struggling performers also trying to make it in L.A. The lyrics, too, foreshadow the entire movie, talking about inspirations and motivations for struggling actors and artists - with all their shimmering hopes and dreams - and the entire desperate nature of these desires.
