Esther vilar libros

Esther Vilar is a German-Argentine writer, sociologist, psychologist, and physician. Before becoming a writer, she studied medicine at the University of Buenos Aires and was later awarded a scholarship to continue her studies in West Germany in 1960. She married Klaus Wagn, an German author, the following year, but the union ended in divorce. Vilar would later say: "I didn't break with men, only with marriage as an institution." She is the author of the trilogy El varón domado (1971), El varón polígamo (1976), and Modelo para un nuevo machismo (1977) as well as essays Viejos (1981), El encanto de la estupidez (1987), and Prohibido pensar (1998).
