We are a nonprofit organization dedicated to providing universal access to quality information, but we need your support. The Internet Archive is entirely self-sufficient, maintaining its own systems without charging users or selling their data. We rely on online donations averaging $15 per year from just one in a thousand users. If you can afford it, consider contributing this Friday - your generosity will be put to good use. Every bit counts, especially for knowledge seekers worldwide. Our work involves documenting government websites, news publications, and historical documents, which requires ongoing support. We kindly ask that you join the ranks of our supporters by donating what you can, even if it's just a small amount.
