Does liko go to naranja academy

- No spoilers in opening just the gym leaders with their aces - Servicable visuals, we'll get the speculated Botan/Penny and Dot dynamic? Pretty sweet, I remember people speculating Dot was a stand-in for her. Now to think about it Nemo somewhat is like Roy? - Onyx actually looks pretty good in his disguise - Ann might be a bit more prominent so that seems cool - New title card is cool - Dot looks great in her trainer clothing, also more formal on-the-foot traveling like traditional series for this little arc. through snow, campfire and all that jazz. - LOL Nemo immediately showing up and challenging Roy, Christ. Also Champion Rank mention. - All I hear is Shuu/Drew when Chili talks. - Nemo cockblocked twice to battle Roy, by a bell this time - New eyecatches for kids - Finally some new ost - Liko takes back the win she lost when she and Ann first met, nice little scrap and use of their items in battle. - god omadaka looks so uncanny and alien...poor design - yeah these two Explorers are so TRio-coded, only with a straight man-wise guy dynamic. Right down the naming theme for their aliases. - Last scene is FRIEDE and Orio....so is that Lucuis's belt and the three Ancient Monster BALLS he's got in a case? Terapagos research thing-y incoming. Professor doing his thang, also no Professor Friede seminar unless I missed it? Way faster affair than I thought, mostly just a bunch up setup. First like watching the start of a new series all over again in a sense. Last edited: Apr 12, 2024 Onigiri and sandwich, i am dead lmao Okay episode, surprised Botan/Penny didn't even speak. As expected they dumped a lot of game characters in and gave them quick micro scenes, imagine they'll get expansions as the arc. pans out hopefully. I spy a Moraidon/Koraidon silhoutte in the ending probably means nothing, I thought the ending theme was better than the opening. Peper/Arven was such an integral part of the game's events and story, I'm glad he wasn't present. Hopefully if he appears he's saved for an important event or maybe apart of Grape Academy. Yay!!! Liko won
